Product Description: Fuel water separating filters for boat engines. Supplied individually or as part of a kit.

- Mercury Branded product code: 802893T
- Kit product code 802893Q4

Defect: Due to a fault in the product the O-ring seal may not seal effectively and allow fuel to escape from the filter.

Hazard: There is a risk of burn injuries and/or property damage due to fire if fuel escapes from the filter.

What to do: Consumers with affected boats should stop using them immediately and contact their nearest Mercury Marine dealer to arrange for an inspection and possible repair at no charge.
